Appeal	RO████████ When the case was called there appeared the appellant assisted by ██████████. She filed a request for bail seduta stante. The age assessment is still pending.
Decision of this sitting	Regarding the bail request the Board decides that the appellant is to be released under the following conditions. In view that the appellant insists that he is a minor, the conditions of bail have to be supervised by an adult who must have care and custody of the appellant. The Board upholds the request subject to a care and custody order in favour of the appellant issued by the relevant authority. The person/guardian who will have care and custody of the appellant is to accompany the appellant to the Police station to sign every Friday from 7:00am – 7:00pm. The Board is also to be informed of the address as to where the appellant will be residing and must immediately inform the authorities if he goes missing.

	Additionally, the Board is imposing a Euro 1000 deposit as a guarantee by the person who is going to have full care and custody. The Board orders a communication of this decision to [REDACTED] and to Inspector [REDACTED]. Case Closed.
